

MEMBER NOTICE

On the 28th October 2019 the Committee, in accordance with Rule 82 of the Tattersalls Club, approved an update to the Clubs By-Laws.

82. The Committee shall have power from time to time when, and as they think fit, to pass, alter, amend, or rescind By-laws for the regulation of the affairs of the Club, provided such By-laws are not inconsistent or opposed to the Rules. The By-laws shall be exhibited for the inspection of Members.

The laws will apply as of the 20th November 2019. Of particular note are the revised dress code, reproduced below and the changes highlighted.

DRESS CODE

Whilst contemporary standards and common sense are the guiding principles of the dress code, Members are expected to dress and respect the rich traditions of the Club. Members and guests will be denied entry if they do not meet the Clubs dress standards. Members must ensure their guests are aware and conform to the dress code.

Members' Bar and Dining Room – Acceptable

As a rule of thumb business attire is always appropriate and preferred, but jackets and ties are optional. Enclosed shoes must be worn at all times.

For men a collared shirt, dress jeans or trousers are the minimum requirement.

For women dresses, skirts, jeans, dress trousers and shorts are the minimum requirement.

Members' Bar and Dining Room – Not Acceptable

Collarless shirts, unless a jacket or collared sweater is worn over the top. All sporting attire including, sports shorts and tracksuits. Recreational or casual footwear is not allowed and includes thongs, sandals (enclosed sandals are acceptable for women) or untidy footwear.

When not conforming to these standards, Members wishing to access the Athletic Department should do so through the alternative entrance off Castlereagh Street.

Athletic Department
